

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

25 May 1995

Dear Mr. Petrovsky,

As you are aware, the General Assembly will convene, from 22 to 24 October, a special commemorative meeting at the level of Head of State or Government to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the entry into force of the Charter of the United Nations.

It is a great pleasure for me to extend an invitation to you to attend this important gathering. This anniversary is a milestone for the international community. It affords us the opportunity to rekindle the ideals of the Charter, to celebrate its achievements, and to share a vision of the future of the United Nations.

I look forward to hearing from you and hope very much that you will be able to attend this historic event.

Yours sincerely,
